Your first, best step toward a linked data future for libraries

Does your library speak linked data?

Help people find their way to your library's resources from more online locations. With OCLC Meridian[®], your catalog can immediately speak the language of organizations that use linked data. Scientific research, government information, museum collections, genealogies, digital humanities, economic data—if they use linked data, you'll find new connections and create your own.

Get a demo at booth #1349.
Or visit oclc.org/linked-data for details.

LOBBY ACTIVITIES

Silent Auction

Christopher J. Hoy Scholarship Silent Auction | SDCC- Lobby D

Be sure to stop by the auction! Named for a long time ALA staff member, the annual scholarship is awarded to an individual pursuing a library sciences degree in an ALA-accredited program.

- Artist Alley participants donate an original piece of artwork to be used in the scholarship silent auction.
- Also featured in the silent auction are the original vibrant quilts created by the Biblioquilters. The quilt makers are representatives who work both in and with libraries.
- Bidding ends Sunday at 4:00 pm

Visit the Artist Alley exhibitors in the Exhibit Hall, 100 Aisle.

Banned Books from the Big Chair

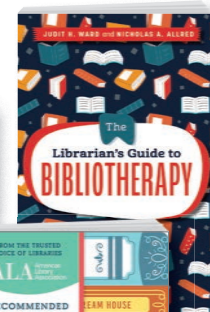

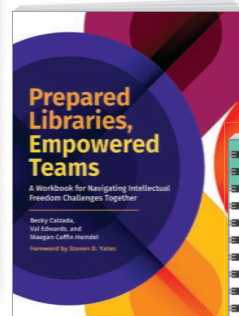

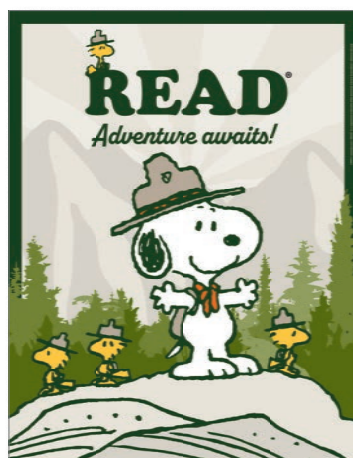

“Let Freedom Read” with Your Favorite Banned Book! | SDCC- Lobby E

Sage, Banned Books Week, ALA’s Office for Intellectual Freedom, and Unite Against Book Bans are teaming up to make the 2024 Banned Books Readout booth even bigger – with a very big chair! Attendees and authors are invited to the activation zone in the Lobby (near the ALA Connect booth), to record videos of themselves reading from their favorite banned book, make a call to action, and pledge their support to “Let Freedom Read.” We’ll have open times for anyone to get a photo in the big chair for social media. Stop by to cheer on the folks reading banned books from the big chair, from authors to attendees to surprise guests! Sponsored by:
